Rhône 2014 – Gigondas

• Dom des Florets, Les Florets 2014 Gigondas 80% Grenache, 15% Syrah, 5% Mourvèdre. Tasted blind. A bit overblown on the nose. Good fruit weight and ripeness. Red fruits and just a hint of strawberries. Well sculpted. Very refreshing. Round and charming. Though maybe not Gigondas of old...

• Dom des Florets, Suprême 2014 Gigondas Tasted blind. Cask sample. Smudgy ruby. Very sweet palate entry. Rather graceful take on Grenache. Light and dancing. With very fine tannins. Reminds me of some of the finest Gredos Garnachas. Very lively. Perhaps a good way to deal with 2014?
